POD Networking Guide

This document is intended as an aid to networking and is to be used in conjunction with your membership list. We have grouped the members as of August according to the type of institution at which they work (using the Carnegie classifications as published in a recent Chronicle report) and by geographical region. For the former grouping we did not have the Canada institutions' classification at the time this was compiled, but some of our Canadian members are working on getting that information.

It is hoped that you will be able to use this listing as a resource for contacting people who are near you physically or like you in terms of institutional characteristics. We hope to generate additional groupings in the future around such variables as position (eg. faculty, administration, development center personnel) and area of academic specialization (biology, psychology, communications, etc.). We will be collecting that information in the future.

MEMBERS BY INSTITUTION TYPE (CARNEGIE CLASSIFICATION)
